

Illinois School Nutrition Association Committees

Are you interested in helping your professional association? The ILSNA is looking for volunteers! A volunteer must be an active member and be employed within the industry to serve on a Committee. Experience and knowledge in the subject matter area help determine the filling of a committee member.

Joining a committee is one of the best ways to get involved and maximize your membership with ILSNA.

Committee descriptions are listed below:

USDA FOODS Committee: Must be an active member of the American Commodity Distribution Association. Assist with the planning of Annual Commodity Product Exhibit and Conference keeping members informed of rules, regulations in regard to commodity purchasing.

LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEE: To keep the association informed of all current and pending legislation pertaining to school nutrition or related programs. To establish lines of communication at national and state levels with Illinois Legislators and keep them informed of Illinois School Nutrition Association's positions, legislative related issues concerning child nutrition programs and the possible effects of this legislation on current programs.

MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE: Sustain and solicit new members.

NUTRITION COMMITTEE: To keep membership updated and informed of relevant nutrition issues and information especially as they pertain to school feeding programs and nutrition education.

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE: Be aware of educational needs of members and develop opportunities to meet those needs.

PUBLIC INFORMATION & COMMUNICATIONS: To promote a positive image of ILSNA.

Your willingness to provide your energy, ideas, experience and your time is appreciated.
